

RELEASE DATE:
August 20, 2009

MEDIA CONTACT:
Evolv
Irene Hall
678-224-5682
ihall@evolve.com

NEW SALES REPRESENTATION
AT WOODSTOCK DOWNTOWN CONDOS

August 19, 2009, Woodstock, Georgia- A new sales and marketing company has recently been brought on board to represent Woodstock Downtown Condos. Southeast Capital Partners, Inc. (SECP) has hired Evolv to represent one of its recent acquisitions in downtown Woodstock.

Evolv sales representative, Tiffany Charles is the on-site New Home Consultant for the new project. With already one residence sold in her first two weeks, Charles is ready for a successful venture. Charles brings over eight years of real estate experience including marketing, market intelligence, closing coordination and sales. Prior to joining Evolv Charles was with Re/Max of Greater Atlanta and Robert Harris Homes.

“Woodstock is a charming community that now offers a non-traditional live, relax, play environment with the benefit of unique and spacious residences above retail” states Charles. “I have lived in Woodstock for many years and have seen the transformation of the area first hand. With the opening of Pure Taqueria and other restaurants such as Canyon Burger and Right Wing Café, our residential condo community is the perfect place to be” continues Charles.

Woodstock Downtown Condos currently offers one and two-bedroom spacious and innovative floorplans for sale. With a total of 67 residences, it is the only condominium community available in downtown Woodstock. For more information contact Tiffany Charles at Woodstock Downtown Condos 770-592-4669 or visit the web site at www.WoodstockDowntownCondos.com.

Southeast Capital Partners, Inc. (SECP) is an Atlanta-based real estate investment company specializing in the ownership and development of rental and for sale housing. With the expertise in land development, construction, sales and marketing, finance, property management and real estate acquisition, Jay T. Clark founded Southeast Capital Partners, Inc. in 1993.

-MORE-

SECP's multi-faceted approach to real estate investment has covered a broad spectrum of acquisitions and developments, establishing it as a highly respected developer known for setting the standard of quality and style in the Southeastern United States. Influenced by local market conditions, SECP positions each of its assets to compete effectively for the long run. Initially focused on multi-family housing rehabilitation, the company has experienced great success in the Atlanta condominium and townhome market and has now entered the active adult market through a partnership with Patrick Malloy Communities called Active Lifestyle Communities. SECP communities are consistent winners of prestigious local and national residential and mixed-use awards. For more information about SECP visit www.secpartners.com.

Evolv is a full service real estate solutions group headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia that specializes in active adult, multi-family, mixed-use and resort community marketing, sales and consulting. Evolv offers a distinct menu of customized services with no long term commitments. To understand more of what Evolv can provide in marketing, sales and consulting support please visit www.evolve.com.

###